It's never too early to start thinking about your career. Stick to this timeline to make sure you’re doing all you can to stand out from the crowd in the job market once you graduate.

Before you arrive
- Log in to the Employability and Careers Portal

Year 1
- Take a skills test on the Portal
- Register with the Employment Bureau for paid work opportunities
- Create a CV on the Portal

Penultimate year
- Create your LinkedIn profile
- Start the Anglia Ruskin Employability Programme
- Get involved with uni life, sports and projects
- Volunteer and build your experience
- Explore your career options with a Careers Adviser
- Update your CV and LinkedIn profile
- Meet employers and attend careers fairs
- Apply for placements and summer internships

Summer
- Volunteer or secure some work experience
- Get support to start your own business

Final year
- Network with employers and add to your LinkedIn profile
- Finalise your graduate CV
- Get ‘work ready’ with support from your Employability Adviser
- Work on the Anglia Ruskin Employability Programme

Graduation
- Land your dream job
- Join the Alumni Network
- Become a mentor
- Complete the Graduate Outcomes survey

Continue on your journey
- Complete the Anglia Ruskin Employability Programme

Follow us on social media
- Facebook
- Twitter

Join a society/ become a course rep
- Volunteer and build your experience

It's never too early to start thinking about your career.

 anglia.ac.uk/employability | employability@anglia.ac.uk | 01245 68 6700 **

Employability Timeline v5.3 - Employability Service - September 2018